Terms and Conditions

- The franchise location should be in a densely populated area, such as near apartments, colonies, metro stations, etc. This ensures a steady flow of potential customers. The company will provide a range of day-to-day products, including groceries,
- * FMCG (Fast Moving Consumer Goods), household items, stationery, handbags, suitcases, etc. However, garments are not included in the standard product offering. If the franchisee wishes to include garments in their product offering, they will need
- to pay an additional Rs 5,00,000. Alternatively, if they prefer to include garments without paying the extra fee, the company will remove groceries from the standard product offering to make space for garments. If the franchise investment is up to Rs
- 10,00,000, the company will neither remove groceries to put garments nor they will charge for garments as in a small franchise investment there is no option for garments. The company is proposing a franchise agreement with a three-year
- term, during which the franchisee will be responsible for managing inventory. At the end of the three years, any remaining inventory will be refunded to the franchisee by the company, after deducting costs for damages and expired items. If the franchisee's monthly sales income generates a profit exceeding Rs 2% of the initial investment, the monthly income which is
- 1% of the investment will be stopped as monthly sales income is higher. The franchisee should have GST, FSSAI, Commercial Electricity and local any other certificate if required by the govt. to run a Franchisee. The Franchisee is required to deposit sale
- into the Company's designated account on daily basis.
